

Art appreciation
is our business.

Think about it.

Insurance is typically designed to protect assets that depreciate over time yet your irreplaceable art and collectables, are appreciating in value. Protecting them effectively – against repair, restoration or theft - requires cover that is as unique as the works themselves. Regardless of our preferences for Banksy or Boticelli, that's something we can all appreciate, isn't it?

Making Marigold: Beaders of Bulawayo is a portrait of a women's beading co-operative specialising in loomed beadwork, based in Bulawayo, Zimbabwe.

Over 200 photographs reveal the sumptuous glamour of the Marigold necklaces and beadwork. Short, stand-alone, narrative vignettes offer background insights into the making and development of the Marigold co-operative; how did these women, whose skilled practice and creative impulses, evident in each necklace, perfect this practice and what has sustained their efforts across decades?
